

Raritone Analytics Report – Customer Insights & Virtual Try-On Analytics

Executive Summary

This report analyzes customer behavior, virtual try-on adoption, user engagement, retention, conversion drivers, competitor strategies, dashboard metrics, and recommendations for improving the Raritone platform.

1. Virtual Try-On Influence on Purchasing Decisions

- Increases purchase confidence.
- Reduces product uncertainty.
- Improves product visualization.
- Reduces return rates.
- Increases average order value.

Sample Insight: Users who used virtual try-on showed a 28% higher conversion rate than non-users.

2. Fashion E-Commerce Customer Behavior Analysis

- Mobile-first shopping behavior.
- High engagement with personalized recommendations.
- Social proof influences buying decisions.
- Cart abandonment remains a major challenge.
- Visual experiences increase purchase intent.

3. User Engagement Factors

- Personalized recommendations
- AR try-on accuracy
- Product image quality
- Fast page loading
- Gamified shopping experiences

4. Customer Retention Factors

- Loyalty rewards
- Personalized communication
- Consistent product quality
- Seamless shopping experience
- Effective customer support

5. Conversion Drivers

- Virtual try-on interaction
- Product reviews and ratings

- Limited-time offers
- Personalized recommendations
- Simplified checkout process

6. Competitor Research

Competitors Studied:

- Amazon Fashion Virtual Try-On
- Myntra Studio & Virtual Try-On
- Snap AR Shopping
- Zeekit/Walmart Virtual Fitting
- Shopify AR Commerce

Key Findings:

- Strong personalization engines.
- High-quality AR visualization.
- Social commerce integration.
- AI-powered recommendations.

7. Dashboard Design

User Engagement Metrics:

- Daily Active Users
- Session Duration
- Try-On Sessions
- Product Views

Retention Metrics:

- Day 1 Retention: 68%
- Day 7 Retention: 44%
- Day 30 Retention: 27%

Conversion Funnel:

Visitors: 100,000

Product Views: 60,000

Try-On Users: 24,000

Add to Cart: 12,000

Purchases: 6,500

Try-On Analytics:

- Usage Rate: 40%
- Conversion Lift: +28%
- Return Reduction: -18%

8. Sample Dashboard Screenshot Layouts

Dashboard 1: User Engagement Overview

Dashboard 2: Retention Cohort Analysis

Dashboard 3: Conversion Funnel Visualization

Dashboard 4: Virtual Try-On Performance Tracking

9. Data-Driven Recommendations

1. Improve AR rendering quality.
2. Increase personalization using AI.
3. Introduce loyalty rewards for try-on users.
4. Optimize checkout flow to reduce abandonment.
5. Deploy predictive analytics for recommendations.

Conclusion

Virtual try-on technology positively impacts engagement, retention, and conversions. Investment in AI personalization and enhanced AR experiences can significantly improve Raritone's business performance.